Resident Egg Hunt

Our 4th annual College Walk Resident Egg Hunt begins at 10 am on Tuesday, April 15. Hunt for brightly-colored eggs throughout College Walk. Each egg will contain a ticket to bring to the Front Desk to claim your prize. Happy Hunting!

Spring Migration of Songbirds Through the Southeast

Friday, April 4, Pam Torlina, Conserving Carolina Community Engagement Director, focuses on the annual cycle of spring migration by songbirds through the southeast, and the amazing feats these animals perform to ensure their species survives through the generations. The presentation highlights some of the species that will begin arriving in our region soon, bringing with them bright colors and cheerful songs, sure signs of the renewal of spring. 3 pm in Auditorium.

Tuesday, April 22, we celebrate National Volunteer Month with a luncheon for all College Walk volunteers at noon in Main Dining Room. We so appreciate each and every one!

National Pet Day

Friday, April 11, stop by the Front Desk to pick up a special treat for your pet(s).
